PROFILE OF A LORETO STUDENT

By the end of their time in Loreto College Foxrock it is hoped that our young people are

- developing and deepening a relationship with God
- able to find God in reflection on their own experience
- happy, friendly and self-confident, with a sense of humour and an awareness of their God-given gifts and the need to fulfil their potential for good
- able to think for themselves, ready to further develop their diverse competencies, find their own voices, claim their own identities
- seen to have a generosity of spirit and a readiness to place their talents in service of others, especially the most needy, ready to ask 'What more can I do, what more can I give?'
- well prepared to take their place in contemporary society; motivated by selfless generosity and aware of how fully they can contribute to the common good
- ready to stand for truth and to be advocates for the voiceless
- proud of having belonged to a Loreto school community with respect for its values and for those who travelled the education journey with them
