SCHOOL UNIFORM

At Loreto College Foxrock, the school uniform is an important part of our identity and the way we present ourselves as a community. Parents/guardians are asked to support the school by ensuring that students wear the full, correct uniform each day. Uniforms should be clean, well-maintained and worn with pride.

To help us uphold consistent standards, students are expected to follow the uniform and appearance guidelines outlined in the Code of Behaviour for Students.

If a student cannot wear a particular item of uniform on a given day, parents/guardians should provide a brief explanatory note that morning.

Requests for temporary footwear exemptions on medical grounds must be supported by a note from the relevant health professional.

Students are expected to take responsibility for their own belongings and to respect the property of others. Any items found or taken in error should be handed into Reception immediately. Students found in possession of uniform items or clothing that do not belong to them and who cannot provide a satisfactory explanation may face disciplinary action under the school's Code of Behaviour.

The school reserves the right to determine whether:

- the correct uniform is being worn
- the uniform is being worn appropriately

The ongoing support of parents/guardians is appreciated in maintaining high standards and ensuring that students represent themselves and the school with confidence and respect.
